

MANUAL-IV

The norms set by it for the discharge of its functions.

Delhi Transco Limited shall endeavor to maintain an efficient and effective EHV grid network for transmission of power in Delhi, continuously improve the performance and availability of the system employing technology in a cost effective manner with due social concern and operations to the satisfaction of licensees and stake holders. The company is also striving to achieve ISO certification for its operations and allied matters. In general, the norms set are highest efficiency, breakdown free transmission and surplus availability of power round the year.

Over the years, Delhi Transco Limited has grown to keep pace with the increasing challenges as State Transmission utility for Delhi.

Delhi Transco Limited is responsible for transmission of power at 220 KV and above voltage levels, besides establishment, up gradation, operational maintenance of EHV (Extra High Voltage) network.